

shifting walls

warm ups – photo exercises

Exercise one: Reading photos

Goal: Short exercise to become more aware of how photos can be analysed

- Steps
1. Form teams (2 or 3)
 2. Explore the photo:
 - what are your first impressions?
 - what can you see?
 - where is it taken?
 - when is it taken?
 - what is the message of the photo?
 3. Present your outcomes to each other

Exercise two: Taking photos “Overcoming walls”

Goal: take a photo with the theme of overcoming walls. Create a photo with a message – connected with a memory from the past, a current experience or a political wish for what should come. You will need to have a title with the photo and a short text for your presentation.

- Steps
1. Form teams (2 or 3)
 2. Work on a first idea
 3. Go outside, look for a possible location
 4. Take your photo
 - try out different camera positions (locations, lower or higher positions)
 - try out different camera framings (how much you show in your picture)
 5. Choose your favourite photo
 6. Work on a photo title and short presentation text
 7. Present your photo and story to each other

Option - share your photo on Instagram with the hashtag #shiftingwalls_eu
